

2012 OAKS SPRING BASEBALL SHOWCASE

Coaching Staff

Stefan McGovern- Head Coach
David Tufo- Assistant Coach
Greg Matson- Assistant Coach

Stefan McGovern begins his 1st year as head coach at Menlo College after spending the past two years as hitting coach & recruiting coordinator at Metro State College of Denver. As hitting coach, Stefan led the Roadrunners to 8.7 runs per game, good enough for 6th in the nation, while their .330 team batting avg. was good enough for 17th in the country. In 2009, his hitters hit 70 homeruns as a team, good enough for 4th in the nation. Stefan has spent the last three summers with three different summer programs, helping the Anchorage Glacier Pilots and Denver Cougars to Top 5 finishes in the NBC World Series, and this past summer, he was field manager for the Rochester Honkers in the prestigious Northwoods Summer Collegiate League.

David Tufo begins his 2nd year as an assistant coach at Menlo College. Coach Tufo will work with hitters and infielders. David attended Burlingame High School and went on to play his collegiate ball at Willamette University, where he played for the BearCats from 2006-2009. David was also an assistant coach for the Fayetteville SwampDogs, a summer collegiate team based out of North Carolina in the Coastal Plains Summer League.

Greg Matson begins his 1st year as an assistant coach at Menlo College. Coach Matson will work with pitchers and catchers. Greg attended Gunn High School. He played his college ball at West Valley Junior College and then transferred to University of North Carolina Greensboro. He has spent the last few years coaching at Gunn HS ('09) and Wilcox HS ('10). Coach Matson has also coached and played in the summer with the Palo Alto Oaks Summer Baseball team.
